Man Dies On Street

4 Apr 1966

NAPANEE (Staff) — Charles McCabe, retired Hay Bay farmer, dropped dead shortly before 9 a.m. Sunday, on West street, a short distance from his boarding house at 52 West street.

Mr. McCabe, who had boarded at the home of Mrs. Hazel Nolan for the past three years, had risen early and contrary to his usual custom ate a hearty breakfast. He was on his way to a store for tobacco, and had gone out the door joking with others who boarded at the Nolan home.

Mr. McCabe celebrated his 73rd birthday on March 11, and Mrs. Nolan had baked a cake for him on that day.

Born on a farm on the north shore of Hay Bay, at RR 3, Napanee, Charles McCabe was a descendant of United Empire Loyalists. His parents were Edward McCabe and Ann Loyst. He farmed in the Hay Bay area for a number of years, on a farm left to him by his father.

He is a brother of Wilfred McCabe, who still lives on the farm deeded to their Loyalist ancestor, and who is a former reeve of North Fredericksburg. Surviving also is a sister, Maude McCabe, of Hillcrest Lodge, Napanee.

Mr. McCabe is resting at the Tierney Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements have not yet been released.
